This thesis entitled â€œHarryâ€™s leadership described in J.K. Rowlingâ€™s:Harry Potter and The Chamber of Secrets is aiming to find Harryâ€™s leadership as the main character in the novel. Descriptive qualitative was used in this research to find Harryâ€™s leadership in the novel J.K. Rowlingâ€™s:Harry Potter and The Chamber of Secrets. Besides, two approaches were applied to analyze the data, named structural and sociological approach. Structural approach was used to find the general description of the main character, conflict, and setting. Sociological was used to analyze leadership of the main character. By applying structural approach, it was found that Harry is a wizard, orphan, kind hearted, brave, and curiosity as the main character. Harry Potter as the main character he had experiences internal and external conflict. The internal conflict was experienced by Harry when he found out that understand a snakeâ€™s language was a bad thing. another people who can do it too was Lord Voldemort. He could not say to his friends if the selection hat was offered him to enter Slytherin instead of Gryffindor. He was afraid the he was a truly Slytherin which had bad reputation as a wizard. External conflict experienced by Harry Potter against Uncle Vernon, Snape, Dobby, and Lord Voldemord. Setting in this novel was divided into two: Setting of place and time. Settings of place are Privat Drive number four, The Burrow, Knockturn Alley, Kingâ€™s cross station, Hogwarts, Moaning Myrtleâ€™s Bathroom, and The Chamber of Secrets. Settings of time are morning, afternoon, and night. Harryâ€™s leadership could be seen when he and Ron entered the restricted forest to meet spiders named Aragog. Ron was afraid of spiders so Harry was the one who led him and found the information about the chamber of secrets. Moreover, Harry led Ron and Lockhart to enter the chamber of secrets and save Ginny Weasley who taken by Lord Voldemort.
