INTRODUCTION

Semiotic is the way of understanding how meaning is conveyed through the various methods human being employ to convey messages, and study of sign, for the example body language, gesture, letters, words, pictures, visual illustrations. In Film, Semiotics is a useful analytical tool for studying the ways by which visual images form a system for the communication of meaning. Any given moment can be rich in visual meaning, but we cannot be too scientific. A train is just a train. In this film The Researcher use semiotic to show symbols of freedom are represented by “The Little Girl”. Semiotic consists of the study of symbol, icon, index. The Researcher used semiotic in this film because of the sign that appear in the film is like life plan board as a symbol of restraint that make little girl do anything that already arrange in the life plan board, based on that phenomenon, The Researcher wants to explain the signs included icon, index and symbol as the references in “the symbol of freedom”.

The Little Prince is a Novel by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry is first published on April 6th 1943. To preseve that literature works, Mark Osborne adapted this movie from novel to film. It is released in France at May 22, 2015. According to www.imdb.com this film has 7.8/10 rates and 95% from 100% in www.rottentomatoes.com. This 160 minutes film also won 1 award for Best Animated Film in Cesar award and Nominated in Annie Awards for Outstanding Achievement in Music in an Animated feature production and Outstanding Achievement in Production Design in an Animated Feature Production and in Hollywood music in Media Awards for Best Original ScoreAnimated Film.

The main character, Little Girl is preparing interviews in Weth Academy. Her “Mother” always supports her to make sure that accepted at the school. Unfortunately, “The Little Girl” was fail the interviews. However, the “Mother” has another plan, and tries to move the house near the school. Durring summer vacation, “The Little Girl” must do everything her mother’s plan on the life plan board. Her “Mother” hopes by learning every lesson on the board she can join with Werth Academy.

Beside their new home, there is a unique home, colorful old house was inhabited by an oldman who had a wreck plane in the backyard. “The Little Girl” and the oldman of Aviator is finally reunited, initiated through a picture story that created by the oldman to “The Little Girl”. That story was the experience of the oldman, as he used to be stranded in the Sahra desert and meet The Little Prince, who claimed come from an asteroid. Meeting with the oldman make “The Little Girl” could feel that childhood are joyful and full of imagination. However, This situation gave the impact towards the program proclaimed by the “Mother” for his future. She wants to be free like the other children on her age, but the fact does not say so.

The situation experienced by “The Little Girl” brings us to the problem dealing with freedom. Freedom is a natural right, the human being is born with. Everyone wants to be free and independent from others. Freedom is the right to do what one wants, live where he wants,eat what he wants, learns what he wants, and chooses the religion in which he believes, without ignoring or harming other rights.

Based on the previous explanation, The Researcher decides to discuss Freedom as symbolized by Little Girl in Mark Osborne’s Film The Little Prince. The Researcher wants to explain how “The Little Girl” achieve her freedom.

This is the place where the little prince lives, the place that little girl want to bring little prince back to so he going to happy again.

Discussion

Icon Described in Freedom as symbolized in Mark Osborn’s Film The Little Prince

The Little Prince Toys

Toys in Oxford Dictionary means an object for a child to play with, typically a model or miniature replica of something. When little girl wants to count the coin, she found another thing beside the coin. This is the first-time little girl sees it as she never has toys before and thus, it makes her curious with the little prince story that is already gave from The Old Man before. From that moment, little girl tries to read the little prince story and start know about freedom.

The Little Prince Story

The Little Prince Story becomes iconic in this film because this story gives The Little Girl’s imagination and make her feel free like the little prince. From this story, she tries to look little prince to make The Old Man happy. When The Little Girl reads it, the camera toward to the paper which means that paper different with another paper little girl had ever read.
The following figure supports the analysis of the above, it is described as follow:

Index described in Freedom as symbolized in Mark Osborn’s Film *The Little Prince

Broken Life plan

Broken life plan becomes an index because when The Little Girl looks at her new home, something blew up from neighbours and went through from the wall into The Little Girl’s home, a propeller destroying life plan. She afraid with what will happen next and call the police to help her ask the neighbour. From that moment, little girl first time meet with the propeller owner, The Old Man.

This scene tell that the rule will be broken by the The Old Man since they play together until little girl forget all about life plan, yet she feels happy and feel freedom.

The Old Man goes to hospital

After Little girl give up about the little prince, she starts life like usual, do everything likes in the life plan. But in the middle of the rain, she looks ambulance in front of The Old Man’s house in which makes little girl shock and starts chased it using bicycle to follow the ambulance to the hospital, and tell The Old Man do not leave her alone.

This scene has become a trigger to little girl to look for The Little Prince and find her own freedom. She runs away from home and uses the plane to look for The Little Prince, so The Old Man could feel better.

The following figure and dialogue support the analysis of the above, it is described below:

Symbol described in Freedom as symbolized in Mark Osborn’s Film The Little Prince

Life Plan

Life Plan is the symbolism of the bridle. in this film, it presents as the restraint for The Little Girl because she cannot do anything she wants. She has to do everything that already exist in the life plan. Mother makes that life plan for little girl so she can get ready before final interview, and when the camera zooming into life plan it showing that the life plan ruled every day, hour, and minutes of little girl. That make The Little Girl does not have freedom to do anything.

Mother

Mother is the symbolism of the warden, because she always gives an order to little girl, and makes little girl to do everything that her Mother wants. Mother always check either The Little Girl does same thing like the life plan or not. She rules everything in the house and the retarder of The Little Girl freedom.

The Little Girl

Little Girl in this film symbolism as freedom, because she try to reach her own freedom through any obstacle, she wants to be free to do anything and become what she wants. In this film, she feels like cannot do anything because of life plan, but after she know The Old Man, she realizes that she has her own freedom and want to get it.

The Little Girl’s House

The Little Girl’s House and all neighbor become symbol because they are all have same shape of house, and it become looks like jail for The Little Girl. When the camera follow The Little Girl’s car it show that everyone have same shape house, and that exactly looks like jail.
Ordinary People

Ordinary in Cambridge Dictionary is not different or special or unexpected in any way and it represent to no freedom because everything already set up and ordinary people just do. When little girl arrived in strange planet, all of the People looks ordinary people then, if little girl still do not know about her freedom as a child, she will become like that and forget about everything.

!Ordinary People

Snow Globe

Snow globe gift from little girl’s father become symbolism because the snow globe represents the future for little girl if she still follows the life plan without arguing anything. When the camera close up into the building inside snow globe, it showing ordinary people work, that is the future of little girl if she still does thing same like the life plan.

!Snow Globe

Pigeon

In the end of the film, after little girl with her Mother visits The Old Man in the hospital, she brings a gift that is the little prince paper story which she put together to become a book and so it could make The Old Man feels happy. After that there is scene where pigeon flying from The Old Man home to The Little Girl house, meanwhile, The Little Girl and her Mother look happy stargazing with telescope together.
Pigeon represents peace for The Old Man, as he finally found his own freedom, and from that moment, Mother finally understand that she cannot force little girl to become like what she wanted and so, little girl found her own freedom.

Conclusion

The following icon, index and symbol which is based on the symbols of freedom, are relate to the topic of research "Freedom as symbolized by Little Girl in Mark Osborn’s film The Little Prince". There are two icons in the film, little prince story, and little prince toys. The girl holds important role for the freedom. In the film, The Little girl (symbol) reads the one page of little prince story (icon) and make little girl know. The Little Prince toys found when little girl want to count another world beside study, the pennies she got, the toys is inside it makes little girl curious and read the story, and come to old man house.

There are three indexes in this film which hold the key of the main topic. Broken life plan it represents that old man will make Mother’s life plan broken, the hospital who make little become brave to do everything alone beside life plan, and the last pigeon who show that little girl finally found her freedom.

There are six symbols in this film. Life Plan is the symbolism of the bridle, in this film present as restraint for The Little Girl. Mother represent warden, the one who always check al little schedule, The Little Girl in this film symbolism as freedom, because little girl is the one who want looking for freedom. The Little Girl’s House represent jail because have same shape with another neighbour, Ordinary people represent of no freedom people who always do everything same with the rule. The Snow Globe represents the future of little girl if she still doing like Mother want.

The explanation above is about the correlation between icon, index and symbol in this film relate to each other as the representation of the symbolism of the achieve freedom. In addition, the correlation between icon, index and symbol from this film can be describes, as we know there are lot of parent that want their kids become great more than them. But, sometime they are forgetting that children should have their own freedom to choose, play. Same like in this film that Mother control everything about The Little Girl that is why she feels sick of it and force to abandoned it.
